

Your 2-1 decision to allow further consolidation of media ownership is appalling and must be overruled or changed. Last time I checked this was a democracy, so start acting like it or leave your post to someone who will. There was overwhelming public demand for no further consolidation, and the majority of elected officials disagree with your decision. Change it or resign. You made a grave mistake.